

K-Love radio is the only station many families will listen to. The music is encouraging and positive, not foul and obscene. We as Americans have the right to hear the stations we choose to hear, and blocking K-Love from the local airwaves would be in violation to that freedom.